DID YOU KNOW?

The kiddos (big and small) should be back in the swing of things now with their school routines. Here are some back-to-school quotes to keep in mind during this academic year:

"Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all"
—Aristotle

"There is no school equal to a decent home and no teacher equal to a virtuous parent."
—Mahatma Gandhi

"Those who don't know history are doomed to repeat it."
—Edmund Burke

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world."
—Nelson Mandela

IOWA LEGAL AID CLINIC: STARTING FRESH WITH A CLEAN SLATE

Back by popular demand, the Iowa Legal Aid will be holding another clinic at the Evelyn K. Davis Center. This clinic will be held from 9:00 am – 1:00 pm, on Saturday, September 29, 2018.

Several lawyers will be on-site to meet with pre-qualified individuals who face one or more barriers because of a criminal background. These barriers include finding suitable housing, limited employment opportunities, obtaining a driver's license, and more.

Everyone makes mistakes. Sometimes, however, these mistakes can haunt us in more ways than one for an extended period of time, and in some cases can prevent one from climbing that invisible socioeconomic ladder.

The purpose of the clinic is to try and alleviate these barriers so that individuals can become full functioning members of society and achieve greater success.

If you or a loved one is currently experiencing hardship for similar reasons due to a criminal background, then this clinic is just what you need.

An appointment is necessary; a Legal Aid representative will notify the qualified candidate following registration and intake.
